THE VIRGINIAN WINS

Froment Rides Two Miles with Broken Collarbone.

HUMMING BIRD OUTCLASSED

Old Dominion Horsemen Again in Front After Splendid Races.

Courtland Smith Wins Two More Events with Woolgater and Pete Dailey, and Billy Garet Captures Cup with Adams—Bound Brook Was Taken Suddenly Ill and Judges Ordered No Bet.

SECOND DAY'S WINNERS.

First race—W. Mabeo, Jr., Sacondaga. Second race—John J. Kelley's The Virginian. Third race—Courtland Smith's Woolgater. Fourth race—J. O'Brien's Gypslie. Fifth race—Courtland Smith's Adams. Sixth race—Courtland Smith's Pete Dailey.

Only the indomitable pluck of that clever soldier, L. Vitor Froment, of Squadron "A," New York, saved the Grand Military Steeplechase, the feature of the second day's meet of the United Hunts Association at Benning, from a one-sided and uninteresting affair.

Froment was apparently in agony, and one arm hung limp when he returned to the judges' stand. He was lifted from his horse Dr. H. H. Kerr, physician in attendance, hastily examined the plucky rider and discovered that he had covered almost two miles with a broken collarbone.

Lieut. Martin's Hard Luck. The Virginian, however, so far outclassed the Humming Bird, that the race would have been ridiculous, and disappointing had not the leader tripped at the end of the upper turn at the first round.

For two days Lieut. Martin's horses were lost on the road from Fort Ethan Allen, and when the pair, Humming Bird and Dixie, arrived Friday afternoon, they were in poor condition for a fast race. Lieut. Martin is one of the few army officers to show an interest in the military feature of the Hunts meet, and it was reported that his animals were not in better condition for the meet, than those of a circus.

The day dawned warm and agreeable after the long spell of bad weather here, resulting in a splendid outpouring of patrons of the cross-country racing. The caliber of the races continued to be of a high order, and once again those Virginia horsemen administered a severe shock to the New York men on the blocks.

Virginia horse flesh was again in front, and Virginia horsemen again showed the way in the principal events. Courtland Smith added two more victories to his string of three of the first day, and is now the leading winner of the meet.

Two such good riders as Dion Kerr, whose mounts were followed more or less during the week by Mr. Tucker had considerable to do with the sentiment of the day.

Won by William and Mary. Special to The Washington Post. Williamsburg, Va., Oct. 27.—William and Mary College defeated Brantford's Business College, of Norfolk, here this afternoon by a score of 10 to 0.

So closely handicapped was the quartet that they took the water jump in front of the stand the last time around as a unit. After this feat Dick Roberts, who had been well ridden by his owner, seemed to break down.

KERR'S GREAT 80-YARD RUN

Wins for Georgetown Men

Washington and Lee Put Up Sturdy Game in First Half and Outplay Home Gladiators as Game Progressed.

Boocock and Mooman Were Stars.

The several hundred football enthusiasts who gathered over across the creek yesterday afternoon to see Georgetown and Lee in up with Washington and Lee, were treated to a rare exhibition of the great American college game, and when time was called at the end of the second half the score stood: Georgetown, 6; Washington and Lee, 5.

An ideal day greeted the spectators, but the weather was a bit warm for football. Each play was applauded by the big crowd of the fair sex with a vim and energy that can only be shown at a college game. Toward the close of the second half, however, dark clouds arose from behind the hill.

Boocock and Miller tore off 23 yards in a hurry, and then Hodgson again booted the leather. Washington and Lee returned the punt, and the Blue and Gray did the same trick the next play.

Boocock and Kerr negotiated the forward pass for 15 yards, and Hodgson kicked around right end. The Georgetown captain tried the forward pass again, but it failed, and Washington and Lee received the ball.

Boocock and Miller played good football. The Georgetown captain made Miller fall on the pigskin on Washington and Lee's 20-yard line.

Boocock and Kerr negotiated the forward pass for 15 yards, and Hodgson kicked around right end. The Georgetown captain tried the forward pass again, but it failed, and Washington and Lee received the ball.

As the game went on, Princeton profited more by Cornell's forward passing than by its own. The Tigers seemed to anticipate it and leaped for the ball more quickly than the Cornell men, whose duty it was to get the ball.

NOTES OF THE HUNT.

"Cordy's" ambition to head the list of winners at the hunt meet will likely be realized, as his victory yesterday on Pete Dailey and Nat. Ray's splendid ride on Woolgater puts him in front so far.

Sanadaga was at a very low price Thursday against a good field, but did nothing startling. The clubman bids 20 to 1 against the horse, but few went to the son of Royal Emblem.

Stetson, with Dion Kerr in the saddle, and Butcher, John Duffy's black gelding, carried the bulk of the people's faith. The Belmonts led standing, the race lost interest for the greater part of the afternoon.

ECHOES OF THE DIAMOND.

The Milwaukee baseball club has drafted George Jimmy Balk, of the Texas League. Jimmy Balk has intended to go to the Legion League next season, as he will be 24,000 with his new professional life.
